

Study Reveals New School Necessary In West End

Report Asks Change In Assessments

By Leonard Randolph
A NEW secondary school serving Monroe County's West End is an absolute necessity, a report issued last night says.

But, the report emphasizes, the school can be built only if assessments in the five districts involved are raised.

It goes on to point out that low assessments are a countywide problem and that the problem should be met by the county.

These observations — and others — are contained in a four-page study released by Chestnuthill Township school board members and John C. Mills, supervising principal of township schools.

Districts involved in the discussion are Chestnuthill, Polk, Eldred, Hamilton and Ross Townships. All five were once a part of the now-disbanded Pleasant Valley Jointure.

Working
In the survey released yesterday the group said:

"Assessments of the horse and buggy days do not build modern educational plants. Rather generally, township assessments in Monroe County are definitely horse-and-buggy and far out of line with areas where the modern educational needs of children are being met."

The study then goes on to point out that none of the five districts could possibly meet a "respectable" bond issue based on present assessed values. A bond issue would be mandatory for a new school.

"This inability to build even one-half a school is not a problem peculiar to the West End of Monroe County," the report goes on. "This same problem is present in other sections of the county. It is a problem that cannot be met by the individual district. . . . logically, it can be met by individual districts but it pours too many dollars into the county coffers by comparison with districts not wanting to meet the problem. The problem is countywide. It should be met by the county."

This is a reference to the county's pending "assessment equalization" program. The project, theoretically, when finished would establish a basic "assessment percentage" at which all properties would be taxed.

At present there is no rule concerning the percentages of market or real value which assessors must use when establishing assessed value. Taxes are paid on the basis of assessed value. The equalization program would mean that each property owner would be paying taxes which are more nearly his fair share of taxation, according to proponents of the measure. Such equalization is now required by State law. But the deadline for establishing a program in counties has been twice changed.

Continues

The Chestnuthill report continues by pointing out that: "Monroe County has a low average of 21.3 percent. Where schools are built, the present of assessment to market value is somewhere between 30 to 35 percent. The (five districts in the) former Pleasant Valley Jointure have an average of 19.14 percent of assessment to market value."

"If reunited, it would not be wise for the former jointure to build a secondary school smaller than a 700 pupil capacity. But to stop argument 600 will be the number."

"Regardless of who does the job or the manner in which it is done, a secondary school of this capacity is certainly going to cost at least $1,200,000. Nine chances out of ten it will cost more."

"The interest rate on a bond issue for the West End, even though a financial cushion is provided will not be three percent or four percent. . . . it will be at least five percent and maybe six."

The report then goes on to consider a "40-year bond issue for $1,200,000 at five percent" using figures for assessed value, market value and percentages certified by the Department of Public Instruction in Harrisburg for the five districts. It lists these items:

Assessed values — Chestnuthill: $615,815. Eldred: $294,010. Hamilton: $841,507. Polk: $374,610. Ross: $274,835. Total assessed value of all five districts — $2,400,777.

Market values — Chestnuthill: $3,432,800. Eldred: $1,513,900. Hamilton: $4,345,400. Polk: $1,886,300. Ross: $1,439,800. Total market values — $12,618,200.

With the bond issue in effect the report says that the districts would then shoulder the following (Please turn to Page Nine)

Broadway Dispute Fades

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (AP) — The big dispute over Rex Harrison's replacement in "My Fair Lady" sputtered out today. Broadway's smash hit will continue in his absence.

Irish actor Edward Mulhare will fill in for Harrison when the star of the musical begins a four-week vacation Feb. 4. He was the choice of the producers after a lengthy search for a replacement.

Ike Presents High Peacetime Budget

$13 Million Marked For Flood Control

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP) — President Eisenhower has recommended more than $13 million dollars for flood control and navigation construction in Pennsylvania for the year starting July 1, 1957.

The total represents a slight decrease from the amount recommended a year ago. But is five times the amount recommended by the President in January, 1955. Initial funds are included to get work underway at three large new projects: One million dollars for Dam 3 on the Monongahela River, one million for a dam on the Allegheny River at Kinzua, and $700,000 for levee work at Allentown on the Lehigh.

Beginning
The million dollar sum for the Allegheny River project in Warren County is only the beginning of a vast 100 million dollar project there.

Continuing flood control projects are the Dyberry Reservoir, near Honesdale; the Prompton Reservoir, in the same area, and Still Water Reservoir, near Forest City. For each of these Eisenhower recommended a two million dollar appropriation. Dyberry and Still Water were given $600,000 for the current year and Prompton $550,000.

The president's recommendation for the Bear Creek Reservoir on the upper Lehigh River near White Haven $3,700,000.

A recommendation of one million dollars was made to continue flood control work at Bradford. In addition there is about $725,000 from previous allocations available for work at Bradford.

The Army Engineers also would receive these amounts for planning: Maxwell Lock and Dam, Monongahela River, $50,000; and these flood control projects: Bethlehem, $100,000; Curwensville, $50,000, and Kettle Creek Reservoir, $215,000.

Rayburn Differs With Eisenhower

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP) — House Speaker Sam Rayburn said today he doesn't think it's important for Congress to include a big economic aid program in the Middle East policy resolution asked by President Eisenhower.

This could be handled later as part of the regular foreign aid bill, he argued.

The Texas Democrat thus challenged Secretary of State Dulles' position that the resolution's purpose of heading off any Communist aggressors would "largely fail" if economic aid weren't included.

At the same time, Rayburn echoed strong sentiment to Congress for giving President Eisenhower the advance approval he asks to use U. S. military forces against any Red aggression in the Middle East.

Conference
Speaking at a news conference, Rayburn said the House "of course" will pass a Middle East resolution with teeth in it.

This was a rejection of suggestions by some lawmakers that military aspects of the resolution be merely an expression of congressional sentiment rather than a statement having the force of law.

The President also asked for 400 million dollars to be distributed in the 24-month period beginning July 1.

Scholastic Survey

Parents Fail In Making Use Of Salk Vaccine

PARENTS in a large part of Monroe County have apparently failed miserably to take advantage of the new, life-saving Salk polio vaccine for their children in high school age groups.

A survey conducted at Stroud Union High School in Stroudsburg shows that only four percent of the total number of students in grades nine through 12 have had all three Salk shots.

There are 483 students in those grades. According to the survey, supervised by Thomas Knepp, science department head, here are some more frightening figures:

THE SILENCE OF SNOW IN A SETTING SUN lifts Winter above the ordinary, humdrum elements of our daily life. Sometimes it's easy to forget the great, enduring beauty of a Winter day. There are chains to be put on those tires that won't grip. There are dangerous drifts of snow on the side roads. There is a sickening inability to get a good grip underfoot when you're walking on snow-packed sidewalks. Then — with sudden revelation — you find yourself standing alone on a hillside in the hush of sunset. And your eyes are blinded by black and white beauty all around you. Watching the naked limbs of the trees, changed in the hovering brilliance of the dying sun a man is swallowed by the pure and solemn silence of a huge, continually mysterious world. Somewhere in this silence, there is time for Man to see that he is small and curiously a part of everything this world can mean and be. (Staff Photo by MacLeod)

Toscanini, 89, Dies In Sleep

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (AP) — The great conductor, Arturo Toscanini, died today.

Death came to him peacefully in his sleep at the age of 89.

In the world of fine music, Toscanini was the king of the Twentieth-Century.

For nearly 70 years, his baton has been shaping the scores of operas and symphonies into gripping magic.

Millions, in this country and abroad, have sat breathless as he led orchestras to the heights of musical expression.

Home
The dedicated and fiery maestro died at 8:40 a.m., at his home in the Bronx's Riverdale section, overlooking the Hudson River.

His son, Walter, said he had suffered a stroke New Year's Day and had not fully recovered. He felt no pain, his son said, and was not aware that the end was near.

It was the "finis" of a career, on the air, recordings, and in concert halls, that had marked Toscanini as the pre-eminent wizard of his art in modern times.

In private, a modest and gentle man, the little, white-haired Toscanini was an exacting and temperamental tyrant on the podium.

But his musicians loved him. And he shepherded them to grand performances that whispered with the voice of angels or crackled with the thunder of volcanoes.

After a lifetime of conducting here, in his native Italy and other European countries and on road tours of America, he gave his last concert April 4, 1954.

Clark Supports Construction Of Proposed Shortway Project

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP) — The construction of a superhighway between Sharon and Stroudsburg, Pa., as part of the 41,000 mile interstate road system has the support of Sen. Clark (D-Pa.).

Clark in a letter to Mayor Thomas H. Levering of Williamsport, described the proposal known as the Keystone Shortway as "highly desirable project which would make a major contribution to the growth and progress of our state."

Cost
The senator from Philadelphia said the overall cost of the interstate rebuilding program probably would run higher than estimated and that in this event Pennsylvania's part in the program might be limited. He said it must be kept in mind that other parts of the state have an urgent need for modern through highways.

"If the pressing needs of these areas are promptly recognized than they cannot legitimately object to the later construction of the shortway," Clark said in his letter.

"I believe the shortway should be built, perhaps in sections as funds become available. But clearly it will have to be done within a framework of meeting all the needs of all the different areas of the state on the basis of priorities of need," Clark wrote.

Levering, in a brief answer to Clark, said that "if the turnpike becomes a reality, Williamsport, among other communities in central Pennsylvania, will be relieved of the problems which have been caused by a lack of adequate transportation facilities."

Meanwhile, at Clarion, Pa., Rep. Varner (R-Clarion), urged backing of the Keystone Shortway on the basis that it would serve more of the population than any enlargement of U. S. Route 6 in northern tier counties.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 16 (AP) — Gov. Leader was asked today to approve improvements to a 90-mile section of U. S. Route 30 across southern Pennsylvania.

Snow Storm Rolls Into New England

By The Associated Press

A SNOWSTORM rolled up the Atlantic Coast into New England Wednesday but winter ran out of ammunition in west-central Canada shooting the works.

Northwest winds still whistled over the hard-frozen midcontinent, but they were bringing comparatively mild air into the Northern Plains and Midwest by way of the Pacific Ocean, Alaska and west-central Canada.

Most of the vast reservoir of Arctic air that covered the Canadian region has drained into the United States.

The snowstorm in the East slowed trains, buses and automobiles and caused some delays in airplane schedules.

Three Inches

The storm dumped three inches on Washington, D.C., eight inches on Gordonsville, Va., five inches on Baltimore, and four inches on Atlantic City. Nantucket Island, generally known as a summer resort, had six inches.

Heavy snow warnings by the New York Weather Bureau called for 6 to 12 inches accumulation from Massachusetts northward.

Subzero cold still chilled the northern states from the Rockies to New England early Wednesday, but a warmup was forecast for the Northern Plains and Upper Mississippi Valley.

Strong winds with gusts of more than 50 m.p.h. whipped across the Northern Plains drifting snow in Montana and northern Wyoming.

'Message' Greeted By Mixed Reaction

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP) — Republicans expressed great pleasure today at President Eisenhower's plans to keep government spending within income for the third straight year.

Democrats criticized the new budget, for the fiscal year beginning July 1, on a variety of grounds. These included the fact that it calls for the heaviest spending ever in a peacetime year, and allows for no tax cuts.

Some Republicans also had a "too high" complaint against the $71,800,000,000 spending figure.

However, House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) commented: "In times like these we don't usually cut budgets much."

Rep. Martin (R-Mass.), the minority leader in the House, called the budget "another sound achievement," adding:

Tax Cuts
"With the government to operate in the black for the third year in a row, the groundwork can be laid for further general tax cuts as soon as our defense needs will permit."

Sen. Ives (R-NY) also stressed the plans for a third straight year of balanced budgets, asking:

"What could speak better for the soundness of the Eisenhower administration's policies?"

Rep. Reed (NY), senior Republican on the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee in the House, struck a dissident note among the GOP congressmen. He called Eisenhower's budget "needlessly high."

Reed also said it was too much to ask of the American taxpayer to put $4,363,000,000 into foreign aid.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, said that if Eisenhower's budget is balanced, "it will be accomplished with increased inflation."

Comment

Byrd said that the administration's plans were based—shakily, he said—on a proposed increase in postal rates and continuing increases in revenue from income taxes on individuals and corporations.

The inflation angle also set off a flurry in the House.

Rep. Cannon (D-Mo), chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said the Eisenhower budget is only 1 per cent less than the 1953 Korean War budget submitted by President Truman "which was so roundly abused."

Cannon told the House the cost of living has gone up, and the value of life insurance and pensions has gone down, "because of the decreased value of the dollar due to the spending of Congress at the insistence of the administration."

Rep. Taber (R-NY), top GOP member of the House Appropriations Committee, said in a reply to Cannon it was true there has been some inflation, but added:

"It is also true that the big inflation came in the administration of Harry S. Truman. Three-fourths of it came then."

Big Plans For Defense

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP) — The Defense Department wants to spend two billion dollars more in the next fiscal year, mostly on "new and vastly superior weapons."

While augmenting its weapons arsenal, the department plans to pare down the number of ground and air combat organizations.

President Expects Income To Exceed 'Outgo'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP) — President Eisenhower handed Congress today the biggest budget in peacetime history — a monumental $71,800,000,000 spending program designed, mainly "to deter and, if need be, to defeat aggression."

Despite the huge contemplated outlays, Eisenhower figured that income for the fiscal year 1958, which starts next July 1, will exceed outgo. That would mean the third balanced budget in a row.

To provide "a wise and reasonable degree of protection for the nation," Eisenhower urged that Congress put 63 cents out of every dollar — a total of $45,300,000,000 — into shoring up defenses of America and the free world.

The budget lays expanding emphasis on guided missiles and nuclear arms.

Blend

Blended into the government financial blueprint is Eisenhower's legislative program, in massive detail. Mainly it is repetitious. The President asked for most of the items on the list in his State of the Union message to Congress last week or in other messages in past years.

Again the program rules out a tax cut in favor of applying excess revenue to trimming the huge national debt.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey told a seminar for newsmen that consideration can be given a year from now to further payment on the public debt and to "further tax reductions." But this can be done, he said, only if the public, Congress and every agency of government work resolutely to hold-down spending. He asserted that any tax cuts should benefit every individual.

While Humphrey said he supports the budget, he also said that "I think there are a lot of places in this budget that can be cut." He didn't name any.

And he said in a formal statement: "Governmental expenditures and the number of government employees are now increasing. This trend should be promptly stopped."

Budget Director Percival Brundage told another seminar that some government expenses are going up but he personally thinks "we ought to be able to hold the overall total pretty close to what it is now—at least for a year or two."

Brundage also said he doesn't anticipate any further substantial tightening of money and that he believes the "tight money" program "has about reached a peak."

One presidential proposal that may loosen up money for home financing would boost from 4 1/2 to 5 per cent the interest rate on private home loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration. Eisenhower also recommended the same increase in the rate on loans the VA makes directly to veterans. These jumps would match recent increases under Federal Housing Administration program.

In developing plans for the coming year, the President said he was guided by such objectives as:

"Peace, justice and freedom for our own and other peoples;

"Powerful armed forces to deter and, if need be, to defeat aggression;

Recommendation

"A healthy and growing economy with prosperity widely shared."

Once more Eisenhower earmarked the bulk of the budget to keeping the nation's military forces in "their present high state of readiness" and to introducing "new weapons."

Again it urges peaceful projects — federal aid for building schools, a broadened health program, stimulation for housing, help for farmers and small businessmen.

Here and there, Eisenhower had an eye-catching proposal that was new or loaded with potential controversy.

He recommended for example, "Acquisition and maintenance of an official residence for the vice president." He didn't say where or put a price tag on it.

He voiced a deep interest in having Congress invite the chief justice of the United States to address it annually on the work and needs of the courts. But he said that "It is not within my province to make any recommendation" in that field.

He suggested statehood in Alaska, but with strong strings attached, along with unconditional statehood for Hawaii.

And he plugged for a natural gas bill similar to one he vetoed last year.

Katz Speaks To Members Of Lions

STROUDSBURG Lions meeting in dinner session at the Penn-Stroud Hotel Tuesday night, heard an address by Edward Katz, official of the local scrap-dealing concern of David Katz and Sons.

The speaker told of how great concerns of scrap dealers have evolved from the primitive, old-fashioned junk shops and junk yards of an earlier day. He told of practical services to communities rendered by the scrap dealers as when, during the height of the depression, the Katz concern afforded a market where people could sell junk of many kinds and many people were able to keep off the relief rolls by gathering and selling such articles.

Collection

He said the collection and sale of scrap has a definite effect on keeping towns and cities clean and neat in appearance, as through the operations of junk dealing unsightly debris is disposed of which would otherwise clutter the streets.

An example of how the reverse process works was afforded, he stated. In the city of New York, there was a time when the market price on waste paper fell to a point where the money received did not pay for the collecting and a deluge of debris soon gathered in the streets.

The speaker told of the astonishingly varied kinds of scrap that are handled by such concerns as the Katz enterprise and explained vari-

CONSTIPATED?

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe
Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel, so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.
To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H stimulate it to action; to a normal urge to purge.
And, of all laxatives, only COLONALIN, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONALIN's great moisturizing capacity, plus COLONALIN's stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONALIN is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.
Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONALIN neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.
It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONALIN exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONALIN, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98¢ for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2¢ per tablet.

Communism Obstacle Facing Church Work

By Paul Carlson
BUCK HILL FALLS—Militant Communism is the greatest obstacle facing the Protestant Church in Europe and China, the Methodist Board of Missions was informed at its 17th annual meeting here yesterday.

Dr. Eugene L. Smith, general secretary of the Division of World Missions, also expressed the belief that "the totalitarianism of the Roman Catholic Church" represents the biggest problem confronting Protestant work in Spain, parts of Africa and several South American countries.

Other obstacles cited by Dr. Smith were nationalism in North Africa, Southeast Asia and India, as well as the resurgence of Buddhism, Shintoism and Islam in Asia.

across the world." Despite the pressures of Communism among the peoples of several European nations, he observed, the Christian faith is still alive in these lands.

"While Communism is the great obstacle to our missionary work in Hungary," he said, "our opportunities come in the fact that the leadership in the struggle against the Communist regime came from the students who had been hand-picked as leaders by the Communists."

"The spiritual vacuum which is created among a people by Communism is one of the great opportunities for the teaching of the Christian faith," he added, "and one of the opportunities for which we were not prepared."

Dr. Smith reported the following conditions in other satellite countries:

Methodist ministers are still being jailed in Bulgaria; the government exercises control over all

Czechoslovakian clergy by controlling their salaries; the denomination has maintained its "integrity" in Poland, although the government has appointed its own committee to govern and administer the church.

There is still evidence the Church is alive in Russia despite Communist activity, he further reported, while in East Germany, the Protestant churches are growing more rapidly than in West Germany.

Meanwhile, Dr. Tracey K. Jones Jr., executive secretary for Methodist work in South-eastern Asia and China, reported that the Methodist and other churches are "intact," are well-attended, and there have been no mergers such as have been forced upon the churches in other Communist-controlled nations.

"The 601-million people of China are in the grips of a mighty Caesar at the moment," said Dr. Jones. "But the Communists have come to an impasse—due partly to the U. S. Seventh Fleet, and have had to make a reappraisal of their activities."

Dr. James E. Ellis, executive secretary of Methodists work in South America, contended that the Roman Catholic Church is trying to force its teachings in all public and evangelical schools in South America.

Dr. Ellis stated that Communism feeds on the situation where indifference to religion in these lands is due to a break from the dominant faith of the continent.

"The illiteracy which looms large in most of South America is due to the educational policies pursued by the government and the Church through the last four centuries," he claimed.

In other matters, the board's Division of National Missions approved a charter for the Alaska Methodists College in Anchorage. Fourteen of the 16-member board of trustees were then elected.

A project of the denomination for a decade, the school will be the first church-related, four-year liberal arts college in the territory.

A financial report showed that $338,000 is now available for the college in cash, pledged and goals accepted by Methodist annual conference in the U. S.

The board was informed that the rapidly changing "face" of America is making costly and insurmountable problems for the nation's churches.

Robert A. McKibben, city church work authority, and Glenn F. Sanford, rural specialist, reported that many small churches will close because of dwindling memberships.

New and enlarged church buildings will be needed in many urban areas, they said, while membership will fall off in many "downtown churches."

These leaders further noted that the costs of building new churches is far in excess of funds available.

Erie Railroad Requests To Detour From Port Jervis

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP)—The Erie Railroad has asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to approve a new shortcut freight route through northeastern Pennsylvania.

The railroad said an agreement with the Lehigh Valley Railroad would reduce mileage and delays in routing freight from the Erie to the Jersey Central and Reading Railroads.

Request

Under the agreement Erie would use Lehigh tracks between Waverly, N. Y., and Duryea Junction, near Pittston, Pa.

Present Erie freight moves by way of Corning and Port Jervis, N. Y., and Newberry Junction, Plains Junction, Jefferson Junction, Susquehanna and Avoca, Pa.

Scranton Woman, 101, Succumbs

SCRANTON, Jan. 16 (AP)—Mrs. Mary Wasnock, who marked her 101st birthday last Christmas Eve, died today at her home in nearby Simpson.

Mrs. Wasnock was widely known in the Scranton area as a midwife who helped deliver more than 3,000 infants, including one set of triplets and a number of sets of twins.

Statements Bring Protests

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 16 (AP)—Statements by actress Marie McDonald that one of the culprits in her recent alleged kidnapping was a Mexican have provoked protests here. Said the Amay News, official publication of the Mexican Assn. of Travel Agencies:

"Whether the attackers were Mexicans, Negroes, Chinese or Lower Slobovians, the fact remains that there either was or was not a criminal offense and nationality has nothing to do with the fact."

Now is the time to mark the resting place with a suitable memorial of someone you hold near and dear.

THREE MEN ON A HEADACHE—Like the common cold, these three men have a common problem. The prospect before them: Arranging for the annual Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce banquet. One problem: Making sure that members attend. Reason they may not: There are two other events scheduled for Monday night when the banquet is to be held. The gentlemen shown herewith in typical form for men with headaches: Ted Hoffman, John Dunkelberger and Jess Haynes. The small bottle at the center of the table contains aspirin. There weren't many left when the photograph was taken. Will be less by Monday.

150 Expected At Chamber Banquet

MORE THAN 150 persons are expected to attend the annual dinner meeting of the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce at 6:30 p. m. Monday at the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

Featured speaker will be Sen. William Z. Scott, who represents the 14th District, comprising Monroe, Carbon, Wayne and Pike Counties.

Jesse F. Haynes, dinner committee chairman, requested that all reservations be made through the Chamber office by tomorrow, or Saturday morning at the latest.

Oil Pool In Europe

PARIS, Jan. 16 (AP)—The Organization for European Economic Cooperation announced tonight that a pool of oil products will start operating tomorrow to aid oil-short Europe.

The OEEC said that industry groups both in Europe and the United States had agreed to contribute to the pool 200,000 tons of oil products every 10 days.

Allocation

The first definite allocation of the pooled products will be decided at a special meeting of the OEEC's oil committee tomorrow.

J. A. Beckett of Britain, chairman of the petroleum committee, told a news conference that Europe's gasoline supply does not present an immediate danger.

He said, however, that the supply of diesel oil and fuel oil is "nearing a critical stage," showing a drop in stocks of nearly one third within one month.

Weatherman Should Help

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP)—If the law of averages holds up Jan. 21 should be a fair to mudding good day for the inauguration ceremonies.

Weather records since 1900 show it has snowed only eight times in 56 years on that date, and seven of those times it wasn't enough to measure.

But the weatherman declines to give a forecast that far in advance.

Production Possible

SAARBRÜCKEN, Germany, Jan. 16 (AP)—Production of synthetic penicillin will be possible within a few months, Dr. Ernest Boris Chain, Nobel prizewinner for medicine predicts. He told the Saar's Natural and Technical Science Assn., however, that that synthetic he has been working on in his Rome laboratory will be more expensive than natural penicillin.

Youth Dominates Session Of Pennsylvania's Farm Show

HARRISBURG, Jan. 16 (AP)—Youth came into its town today at the Pennsylvania Farm Show as farm boys and girls demonstrated how they hope to operate the state's vast agriculture industry in the years to come.

Some 2,000 teen age members of statewide farm organizations held meetings throughout the day. They discussed the latest farming methods—many of them already playing a part in the state's $800 million dollar-a-year farm economy.

Many thousands more farm youngsters attended the 41st annual exhibition today as spectators, helping to swell the days' attendance to an estimated 140,000.

A total of 320,000 persons have toured the 14-acre show since the five-day exhibition opened on Monday.

Honorary

Gov. Leader, an active York County poultry farmer, was made an honorary Keystone Farmer by the Pennsylvania Future Farmers of America.

Leader and 47 farmers and business and professional men were given the award in recognition of their "outstanding contributions to rural Pennsylvania life."

Statewide and sectional meeting of the 4-H clubs and Future Homemakers of America also were held.

The FFA awarded the "Keystone Farmer" degree to 220 members of the organization. It is the highest statewide award made by the group.

John A. Brown, 29, Susquehanna, R.D. 1, was named "State Star Farmer" and Byron A. Martz, 17, Dalmatia, R.D. 1, was designated "State Star Dairy Farmer."

Swine and sheep sales were held throughout the day with judging of other livestock placed in competition in part of $58,000 in prize money.

Local Oil Dealers Protest Price Increase

LOCAL OIL and gasoline distributors this week joined consumers in protesting against the new hike in prices on those fuel commodities.

Distributors raised prices on furnace (heating) oil eight-tenths of a cent per gallon, gasoline and kerosene each one cent a gallon on Monday of this week in accordance with factory-regulated raises.

The hike in prices has brought strong complaints from consumers and from many newspapers (including this one) who have said editorially that pooled resources of petroleum products have gone up. This increase in available supply should lower rather than raise prices, they argue.

Headaches
Companies in Monroe County have registered complaints with the refining companies responsible for the rise. One local fuel oil and gasoline distributor pointed out that such price hikes as the current one "do not make a profit, in any way" for the local distributor — "they just give him more headaches."

Most distributors work on a commission basis. Refiners and major oil companies on the national level have announced that the price increases were due to a hike in the price of crude oil by the barrel.

Sanborns Named To Office

Grand Jury Examines Large Signal Corps Depot Contract

A FEDERAL grand jury yesterday continued to probe into the awarding of a $16,353,000 contract at the Tobyhanna Signal Depot to one of the Nation's largest contracting firms.

The subject of the grand jury's present interest is the firm of Merritt-Chapman and Scott Corp., New York City.

The panel has been investigating corruption during construction of the $33,000,000 military installation. Its probe is now in its 11th month. Twelve persons associated with the project have been indicted. Merritt-Chapman and Scott held a prime contract to construct the heating and water systems at the depot, as well as to erect "certain buildings" and make "site improvements."

Several contractors who held sub-contracts from Merritt-Chapman and Scott are among those indicted. They are charged with conspiracy to defraud.

Secondary School Found Necessary

amounts and percentages of the total issue:

Chestnuthill—$326,400 or 27.2 percent; Eldred—$144,000 or 12 percent; Hamilton—$412,800 or 34.4 percent; Polk—$178,800 or 14.9 percent; Ross—$138,000 or 11.5 percent.

To do this the districts would have to raise their millage rates—maintaining per capita taxation at present levels—to points well beyond the legal limits.

The report then asks: Does this mean that a secondary school is impossible? And answers its own question by saying that these facts do not mean a school cannot be built.

The answer to a building program would lie—the report goes on—in establishment of a standard assessment percentage for all five districts. For purposes of illustration, the report chooses a 35 percent level.

Market Value

Setting a 35 percent of market value assessment for all five districts, the report says, would provide the added bonding power and taxation needed to finance the $1,200,000 program adequately with room to spare.

This is the way it is figured: Chestnuthill's assessed value would jump from $615,815 to $1,201,480 providing an additional revenue of $20,498 yearly or the equivalent of 17.1 mills.

Eldred's assessed value would move from $294,010 to $529,865 and would give additional revenue of $8,255 or the equivalent of 15.6 mills.

Hamilton's assessed value would move from the present $841,507 up to $1,520,890 and provide additional revenue of $53,231 or 15.6 mills.

Polk's assessed value would increase from $374,610 to $660,205 for additional revenue of $11,709 or the equivalent of 17.7 mills.

Ross' assessed value would jump from current $274,835 to a new figure of $503,930 for added revenue of $10,309 or 20.5 mills.

Using a 35 percent of market value assessment rate, the townships would be able to set the following millage requirements on net rental alone: Chestnuthill, 11.6; Eldred, 8.9; Hamilton, 11.1; Polk, 7.7; Ross, 9.8. Each of these would produce revenue equal to or greater than the amount of money needed to pay rental costs.

Total Millage

The total millage requirements to carry both the rental and operational costs—if such costs remain on a constant level, with the aid of additional State jointure bonuses—would be as follows: Chestnuthill—29.5; Eldred—28.3; Hamilton—30.5; Polk—31 and Ross—34.3 percent.

All of these millage totals are under the 35-mill maximum set by the State for fourth class districts. In nearly all cases the building program would have been made possible without excess burden on taxpayers.

And in the case of each district, as assessments are raised, the millage rate would—and according to the report would—be lowered. This would mean an increase in taxation of some proportion—but "not an unbearable increase" for any individual taxpayer or district, the report maintains.

The report's main point is that constant and increasing pressure is being brought to bear on school directors for a new high school. To build the new school the report indicates that residents must measure their desire for it against the steps which "must be taken" in order to get it.

The report emphasizes strongly that the real need for school districts throughout the county is an established "assessment percentage" and maintains that this is the province of county commissioners and the stalled equalization program.

Without such a centralized power setting the percentage rate, however, the report indicates that local action may become necessary. It points out, strongly, that raising of percentages in individual districts will result in increased payment of taxes into county funds from those districts while other districts who take no action will be paying much less.

In the final analysis, the report asks taxpayers to weigh their own desires for a new school and determine, for themselves, whether the financial actions needed are not the only way.

The report—for its own part—indicates affirmatively that the key to a building program in the West End is a revision of assessments.

Letter To Parents

National Guard Opens Recruit Drive

MONROE COUNTY'S National Guard today begins a full-scale drive to enlist the aid of local parents in their effort to build Companies F and G to top strength.

Their campaign is centered on informing parents of young men between the ages of 17 and 18½ years of the "enormous advantages" to be found in "at-home enlistment and service in National Guard units."

The initial "kickoff" of this new information program was contained in an "open letter" released last night by Lt. Richard L. Rugg Jr. and Lt. Nelson P. Silfee, commanding officers of Companies F and G.

Major portions of the letter are reprinted here. It is addressed "To the parents of young men 17-18½ years of age."

"If your son is now a member of a Reserve Unit or has enlisted in the Armed Forces, we would like to congratulate you on a wise choice. However, if you are undecided, please take a few minutes of your time to read this important letter which may help you reach a decision.

"On April 1, 1957, a new law goes into effect whereby young men joining the National Guard will also have to take six months training at an Army Camp away from home. The same as all other reserve units.

"Your son can—until mid-June—fulfill his military obligation right at home. This country was founded and protected by Citizen-Soldiers.

In peace, they help, protect and give aid in all disasters such as the flood which hit our home area in August, 1955. In war, they—like everyone else—help protect the democratic way of life we all enjoy. But they have an added advantage which cannot be ignored—they are thoroughly trained for the jobs they must do, thanks to the National Guard.

"Simply, enlistment in the National Guard unit here at home will mean that your son attends drill one night of each week in his own community and 15 days at camp each year with his friends in his local company. The officers and senior non-commissioned officers who would be entrusted with your son's training and welfare are married men who are respected in our community. Some of these men you probably know. Like yourself, they have families and children of their own.

"By joining now, in the Guard, your son can continue his education or business career by training at home without interruption by an extended tour of service away from home.

"Our permanent duty men are: M/Sgt. Robert E. Schoonover, 32 Lackawanna Ave., East Stroudsburg, who may be reached at home telephone 648-M and M/Sgt. Vincent Marek Jr., Tannersville, telephone 1400-J-2.

"These two men invite you—or your son—to visit with them or call them either at home or at Wayne gymnasium, East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. The telephone number at the gym is 1276. They may be found at the Guard headquarters Monday through Friday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

"Parents who wish either Schoonover or Marek to call at their own homes to talk with them and their sons, may make an appointment for such a visit if they choose simply by telephoning either at home or the office."

The letter is signed by both Rugg and Silfee.

Favorable Condition

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (AP)—Dr. Paul Dudley White said today

President Eisenhower is in the most favorable group of heart attack survivors in that he has had no symptoms afterward. Persons in this group live an average of about another 10 years. The Boston heart specialist told a news conference.

Governor Takes Office 'Early'

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 16 (AP)—Gov. Cecil Underwood, West Virginia's first Republican governor in 28 years, took office shortly after midnight last night 12 hours ahead of schedule.

He then went through the paces again today at the scheduled inaugural ceremonies—held outdoors in frigid weather.

Kresgeville

Mrs. W. E. Andrews

The following officers were chosen to direct affairs of the Sunday School: Superintendent, Mrs. Warren Lenhart; assistant superintendent, Mrs. Betty Smith; secretary, Joseph Romascavage; assistant secretary, James Smith; treasurer, Thomas Smith; pianist, Mrs. Betty Smith; librarian, Edward Romascavage.

Edwin Hahn, Trachsville, visited his daughter's family, Mrs. Elsie Snyder over the weekend. Ground Hog Lodge 6 of the West End of Monroe County will hold their annual meeting on Tuesday night, Feb. 5 in the West End Fire Hall at Brodheadsville. All members are urged to pick up their tickets immediately from the member who mailed their applications.

Jr. Women's Induction, Pageant

The 43-year history of the Stroudsburg Woman's club lost nothing in the retelling to the Junior Woman's Club on Tuesday night. Written by Mrs. George T. Robinson, narrated by Mrs. Elton Denning, the program was given on Monday for the seniors.

It followed the same pattern for the junior with the charter members who are still active in the club as guests of honor, and a parade of fashions of the period covered by the history as a climax. To many of the juniors the projects and accomplishments of the past came as news.

Among the organizations originally sponsored by the Woman's Club or its members have been the Monroe County Library, the Stroud Community House Committee, the Girl Scouts, Planned Parenthood, Clinic, Well-Baby Clinic, Monroe County Garden Club, Crippled Children's Association, Children's Aid Society, Cancer Society and Heart Committee.

A. B. McDowell, drama chairman, and Mrs. Edwin C. Hughes, music chairman, were in charge of the production and Miss Bess Gardner was accompanist. Mrs. Samuel O. Wells, III, program chairman, introduced the program.

Women modeling the gowns were in some cases changed from Monday afternoon with Mrs. Howard Flieger, Jr., Mrs. Horace R. Westbrook, Mrs. McDowell, Mrs. John Ramsey, Mrs. Francis Shinn, Mrs. Olaf Pedersen, Mrs. Roy Peterson and Mrs. Arthur Sice on Tuesday, wearing the dresses which spanned the years.

188 Couples At Dance. The business session was an active one, with reports on projects past and future. Mrs. William Morgan, welfare chairman, asked members to bring in canceled stamps for the veterans hospital; the national level project on the four-fold goal of the club.

The Christmas dance was attended by 188 couples. It was reported by Mrs. N. R. Hummel and Mrs. Joseph Lyons, co-chairmen of the dance. The club gave $250 to each of the 63 wards of the Children's Aid Society to spend as they wish. The balance of $64.50 from the dance will be used for the club's welfare work.

Mrs. Lawrence Levy, chairman of the Circus Bazaar scheduled for March, thanked the members of the Senior Woman's Club for their donations to the bazaar and asked members to continue to bring in articles. Mrs. Richard MacDonald, president, announced that Mrs. Lynn Hunter, state third vice president at large, will be on the HOME TV program on Feb. 6.

New Members Inducted. Mrs. J. J. Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

I keep thinking of things I forgot to tell you in the excitement of the Woman's Club history two days running — but like the thrifty housewife who refuses to throw out bits of wrapping paper and bright ribbons, I'm going to salvage them anyway.

One concerned that handsome brown wool suit that Garnet Ramsey modeled in the style show — the one with the long skirt and swallow-tail coat — well that was Helen Webb's going away suit. I'll have you know, and the tremendous hat with the flowers was one her husband had bought her on their wedding trip at Marshall Fields in Chicago.

Demure, quaint and picturesque were the old time costumes, but the ones that caused the biggest stir were the ones from the 1920's and 1930's. They were

Morey PTA Bake Sale Set For February

Members of the Morey Parent-Teachers Association had a chance to express themselves on the subject "Television—Good or Bad" at the meeting on Monday night. Miss Eloise Bryan, school psychologist, in setting the background for the discussion pointed out that, good or bad, television is here to stay and should be integrated into family life.

She advocated family councils on what and when television should be watched rather than arbitrary restrictions on its use. Educational programs can also have value in relieving a child's tensions.

Edward Hoffman, president at the business meeting when plans were made for a bake sale to be held Feb. 8 at Wyckoff's store with the proceeds to be used for the special project fund. Mrs. Roger Stinson is chairman of the project fund and Mrs. Lester Warner, chairman of the bake sale. The fund is used for school incidentals not provided for in school funds. Replacing playground equipment lost in the flood and providing equipment for the girls' lavatory are two major items now being considered.

Miss Gladys Woltjen, building principal, reported on the success of the open house held in December. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Nat'l Guard Will Seek To Interest Mothers In At-Home Training Program Available

Local National Guard officers yesterday began what is to be an intensive drive to contact women with sons between the ages of 17 and 18½ years of age.

The decision to carry on public relations work with mothers in this area is part of an overall policy now being set down by National Guard organizations throughout the State.

During the period between now and the last of February, Monroe County's two local National Guard companies are going to make an attempt to explain — especially to parents — the value of local, "at-home" service for young men in Guard organizations.

Guard officials will point out to local parents that — until the Army's new ruling goes into effect on April 1 — young men under 18½ years of age and over 17 may join the local Guard organizations and serve all their enlistment time at home.

Drill time requires one night of each week in this community. The local companies also attend Summer camp for 15 days each Summer in training at Indiantown Gap.

Emphasis is being placed on informing parents because there is a lack of understanding within families of the advantages of National Guard training and enlistment for young men. Guard officials said yesterday.

Additional information for those interested will be found in another story in today's issue of The Daily Record.

State Anxious To Place Teachers College Dormitories On Financially Sound Basis

HARRISBURG, Jan. 16 — The Department of Public Instruction is considering a proposal to put newly built state teachers college dormitories on a financially self-liquidating basis, Dr. Charles H. Boehm, state superintendent, announced yesterday.

"It appears evident," the superintendent said, "that the construction of new and badly needed dormitories on teachers-college campuses should be made self-liquidating — that is, student room rents should pay for maintenance of dormitories and amortization of their original cost."

In recent years most privately endowed institutions, Pennsylvania State University, and teachers colleges in other states have made their new dormitories self-supporting, and their housing facilities are generally safe and good.

"Housing conditions in many teachers colleges are lamentable because century-old structures are overcrowded and inadequately maintained. It is not uncommon to find four students in a room designed in the Civil War era for two. Prospective teachers for Pennsylvania's educational system deserve the normal accommodations available to other college students in the state."

"It seems unlikely," he added, "that Pennsylvania will solve its teacher-college housing problems without raising dormitory fees. How much they should be increased depends on the results of departmental surveys."

A survey of teacher-college buildings and facilities will be completed by the Department before February. An architectural and engineering survey of student housing conditions and dormitory costs is planned for the near future.

Grid Rules Committee Bans 'Mask Grabbing'

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 16 (AP)—The powerful Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. today slapped a 15-yard penalty on protective face mask grabbing, but turned thumbs down on a motion to expand the substitution rule.

The 25-man group, directed by Chairman H. O. (Fritz) Crisler, ended its annual three-day meeting with a morning session. Crisler, athletic director at the University of Michigan, termed the sessions "unusually satisfying since everyone showed himself to be completely unselfish and devoted to the grand old game."

Crisler reaffirmed the stand taken earlier by Committee Secretary and Denver University Athletic Director E. E. (Tad) Wieman that the practice of face mask grabbing was "becoming too common and can lead to dangerous situations."

Off Limits

Legislation adopted today, Crisler said, puts the face mask off limits to all players and those grabbing it will draw a 15-yard penalty for a personal foul.

But an expansion of the substitution rule, suggested by retired Columbia University Coach Lou Little as a representative of the American Football Coaches Assn., met with disfavor.

The coaches asked that the rule be expanded to allow substitutes as well as starters to return to the game once each quarter. The present rule allows only starting players to return after being relieved in a period.

Crisler said the feeling existed that this move could mean a return to platoon football, particularly at those schools with large squads.

The committee also designated specifications as team areas, Crisler said, since there have been complaints over what he termed sideline administration.

Specify

The rules will now specify that a marked area two feet from the sideline markers between the 25-yard line will be the team area. Players, coaches and team attendants, he said, now run the risk of drawing a 15-yard penalty for being outside of that area.

Two other relatively important changes also were made by the committee, Crisler said.

Game officials will be instructed to give closer attention to a center tilting the ball to more than the 45 degrees as allowed under present rules, he said. Tilting the ball more than allowed decreases the neutral zone and violation will bring a five yard penalty.

The use of the type of football used has been clarified, Crisler said. The ball selected by the home team before kickoff shall be used throughout the game. By mutual consent, a rubber-covered ball may be used, but it may not be changed once the game is underway.

Yankees Ink Three Players

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (AP)—The New York Yankees announced signed contracts today by three of their younger, hopefuls—shortstop Tommy Carroll, a bonus baby who is entering his third year; outfielder Marvin Zipfel and catcher John Blanchard.

Carroll, from St. Albans, N. Y., has played in 50 games for the Yankees, hitting .333 in 17 at bats in 1956. Zipfel, 17, from Belleville, Ill., signed just out of high school, played last season with Quincy, getting in 45 games. Blanchard is a power hitter who socked 34 home runs for Binghamton in the Eastern League in 1955 and 17 for Birmingham in the Southern Assn. last season.

Jensen First Bosox To Sign

BOSTON, Jan. 16 (AP)—Outfielder Jackie Jensen, a stubborn holdout a year ago, today became the first Boston Red Sox player to return a signed contract for the 1957 season.

Though no amount was mentioned by the ball club, it is assumed Jensen received a raise in salary.

National Boxing Association Strips Saddler Of Crown

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 16 (AP)—The National Boxing Assn. today for the second time in 20 months stripped featherweight champion Sandy Saddler of his crown for failing to sign for a title defense, but said it would "reconsider" after he undergoes a physical examination.

Fred Saddy, chairman of the NBA's rating committee who announced the action against Saddler, said the NBA would "hide its time until it learns the outcome of the New York examination."

Examination
Shortly after the NBA declared Saddler's title vacant, the New York State Athletic Commission said it had ordered Saddler's manager, Charles Johnston, to bring his fighter in for a physical examination to determine whether he is fit to fight. The commission asked Johnston and Saddler to appear Friday or the week after.

Johnston indicated he could not appear until a week from Friday because his wife is ill in Miami, Fla.

Saddler, now 33 by his own admission although the record book lists him as 30, was injured in an auto accident last July and hasn't fought since. He last defended his 126-pound title on Jan. 18, 1956, when he stopped Flash Elorde of the Philippines in the 13th round.

Fire Companies To Feature Annual Bowling Rivalry

ACME HOSE CO., East Stroudsburg, and the Stroudsburg Fire Department will continue their bowling rivalry this winter, with the Monroe County March of Dimes receiving all benefits.

The matches are scheduled to be rolled on the last Sunday in January, February and March. Results will be judged on total wood. Each match will begin at 2 p. m. The opening session is set for Jan. 27.

History
Stroudsburg won the first three matches, 1953, 1954 and 1955, but Acme bounced back to win last year.

Acme is also scheduled to roll against International Boiler Works this coming Sunday, also at 2 p. m., and once again all proceeds will go to the March of Dimes.

In each case the action will take place at Harmon's Recreation.

St. Louis Downs Royals

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Jan. 16 (AP)—Charlie Share scored six of the Hawks' 10 points in an overtime period tonight as St. Louis handed the Rochester Royals their fourth straight NBA defeat, 108-106.

Bon Pettit, who paced the Hawks with 26 points, sent the game into overtime when he dropped in two free throws with 1:23 left in the regulation game. The two foul shots tied the score at 98.

Brainpower, Speed New Weapons

BERKELEY, Calif., Jan. 16 (AP)—Speed and brainpower drew emphasis today as youthful Pete Elliott took over as the new University of California football coach on a three-year contract at $16,000 per year.

California grid followers hope his adaptation of Bud Wilkinson's Oklahoma split T offense can boost the Bears back to the heights they reached six years ago.

The blond, former University of Michigan quarterback, is 30, youngest coach in California's history. He said that in talks with his predecessor, Lynn O. (Pappy) Waldorf, they discussed personnel only in general terms.

Athletic Director Greg Englehard announced last night that Elliott, who directed Nebraska last season in his first year as head coach, had been given a three-year contract.

Today they disclosed the salary terms—$16,000. Waldorf reportedly received $17,500 last season, his 10th as California coach.

Prior to moving to Nebraska, Elliott for five years was Wilkinson's backfield coach at Oklahoma.

Pappy's teams won the PCC title and went to the Rose Bowl in 1948, '49 and '50, but in 1955 wound up with a 2-7-1 mark and last fall had a 3-7 mark.

Bell To Meet With Player Group

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 16 (AP)—The newly formed professional football players association and Bert Bell of the National Football League will meet here Jan. 28 to trade ideas on player-owner relations.

Bell announced today that he had arranged "an informal meeting" with Kyle Rote, New York Giants, and Norman Van Brocklin, Los Angeles Rams, player representatives of the new association, and the group's attorney, Creighton Miller.

The commissioner said he spoke on the telephone with Van Brocklin, the Rams' quarterback, and Miller, Cleveland attorney and former Notre Dame football star, and told them he would be happy to talk things over but was not in a position to make any commitments for the club owners.

Listen

Bell said he would listen to the players' ideas, answer any questions they might have and explain his feelings on the various matters at issue. He added that he then would carry the discussions back to the owners or have Rote, Van Brocklin and Miller speak at a session of the league's annual meeting scheduled for Jan. 31, Feb. 1 and 2 in Philadelphia.

Among the demands expected to be discussed by Bell, the players and Miller are recognition by the league of the players association, training camp expenses, a clause in the contract providing compensation for injured players and a pension. The general policy has been for clubs to compensate injured players, but the association wants it in the contract.

Bell says he has discussed the problems informally with Miller and that he believes everything can be ironed out amicably.

Bardstown Whips Field Of Fifteen

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 16 (AP)—Calumet Farm's Bardstown whipped 15 other speedy thoroughbreds as expected today to win the $68,500 Tropical Handicap, closing feature at Tropical Park, before 12,081 racing fans.

Bardstown, ridden by Willie Hartack and two-weighted at 128 pounds, ran the mile and an eighth in 1:48 4-5 and won by a length and a quarter.

Wheatley Stable's Gray Phantom was second, a length and a half in front of D. E. Loveman's Sunningdale, while Formella Stable's Switch On finished fourth, two lengths behind Sunningdale.

Record Topples
A world's record which had stood 13 years toppled in the fifth race when Viking Victory, 4-year-old son of mighty Coaltown, zipped off 5 1/2 furlongs in 1:03, one-fifth of a second under the old mark.

The heavy favorite despite his upset, Bardstown returned $4.20, $3.00 and $2.90 in the $2 mutuels, going to post at slightly better than even money. Gray Phantom, second choice in the wagering off his smashing victory in the Robert E. Lee Handicap, paid $3.30 and $3.50 while show prize on Sunningdale, coupled with Pearl Orana in the betting, was $12.60.

Cadilli Boxes To Split Decision Over Top Featherweight Contender In Dull Struggle

BOSTON, Jan. 16 (AP)—Gil Cadilli, the lean California spoiler, defeated second-ranked featherweight contender Miguel Berrios in a 10-round split decision tonight at Mechanics Building.

Cadilli weighed 127 1/2, Berrios 126 1/4.

Cadilli, the San Francisco lad who two years ago beat Willie Pep in the much disputed bout, boxed with the clever Berrios and came off with the edge on the official cards.

The loss was a damaging one to the reputation of Berrios, a Puerto Rican from the Bronx, N.Y., who hoped to move closer to the title of the defrocked feather king, Sandy Saddler.

Saddler earlier today had his championship taken away by the National Boxing Assn. for failure to defend it within a specified time limit.

The fight, for the most part a dull and colorless affair, picked up in the late stages — the first indication to the national television audience that the meager crowd of 362 was present.

Referee Eddie Bradley and Judge Johnny Slavo scored the fight 99-95 each for Cadilli while Judge Joe Santarpio had 98-95 for Berrios. The AP card had it 97-94 for Berrios.

Easton went ahead at 50-49 at the close of the third period and took advantage of the departure of Al Hoffman, High Point forward, who left for work early in the second half, to pile up a 23-6 margin in the final quarter.

Sports Trail - -

By Whitney Martin

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (AP)—We always believed that the height of verbal elegance was achieved by our fight announcers in describing the pugilistic merits of the warriors who would appear on next week's card.

Any performer who isn't "two-fisted, crowd pleasing, aggressive and rugged" just doesn't rate, and no matter how unexciting the bout the customers are about to see might be, there's always the promise of better things to come. The customers are supposed to forget the placid affair they are about to watch was described in similar glowing terms a week before.

Anyway, we now discover our fight announcers are pikers, and even that master of redundancy, Harry Balough, rates as an amateur.

Pikers

We have at hand a fight program from Siam, where the local rules permit the use of both hands and feet in assaulting an opponent. The styles of the various contestants are set forth in a manner to whet the imagination, to say the least. Here are a few samples:

O. Mauer—"Fighting born lickety-split kind of Sidsingh camp, workshops the do or die motto, once in the ring it is either his opponent is carried down or he is carried out to the hospital."

Chakkravadd—"Dashing, crashing star, a tough cauliflower experienced in style advanced lead followed by punch and kick to land in the solar plexus or on chin."

Sukkasem—"Super star of Kedsukram camp, the brightest star under the Thai style, he is a confidently sure-shot kicker with terrific rooted deed to conquer opponents and gives the referee to do in singing, 'one, two, —ten into opponents ears whilst they dreamed happily.'"

Dhanou-Smith—"Molting star of Yoddhongchal camp — a tough, aggressive attacker with sensational combination of limbs preferably walked in and damaged opponents from going to finish."

Kheo-Sod—"Highlight of Suraporn camp, the good fist-trader with kick and elbow smashes from Korat, northeast of Thailand. Kheo-Sod loves to do on the canvas-floor with dangerous limbs in full of all actions."

First Trailer

Sakorn—"Crashing star of S. Saanya—A tough fist-trader with hardest fighting character experienced in style advance lead followed by punch and elbow and sent them to dreamland."

U-Rai—"Super star of Riddhiron camp, he is colorful tornado with special knowledge of kicks and can absorb any amount of punishment. Win or lose he promises a fistic treat with kick for fans to be long remembered."

Ja-Ded—"Highlight of Charoen-meang camp, the well-known viciously sluggish fist-trader with peppered firing kick who lives marching forward and damages opponents in ferocity."

Charnchai—"Poisonous fistic trader of Payaknong camp, he is a scientific and fighting born with special knowledge of highkick to damage opponents and rolled them down by K. O."

Dechoe—"Highlight of Sorn-daeng camp — A tough hitting agent with dangerous limbs in full of all actions. Terrific, aggressive and give-and-take. Win or lose, he promises a fistic treat for fans to be long remembered."

There were more, but that gives you an idea of tigers they toss in the ring to tear each other to pieces in Thailand. Make our fighters look like tabby-cats.

Officials List Racing Slate

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (AP)—New York horse racing officials today announced the complete stakes program for the entire season, with 56 added money events totaling $2,620,000.

Heading the list is the $100,000-added Belmont Stakes June 15, final event in the Kentucky Derby-Preakness-Belmont triple crown for 3-year-olds.

The 197-day New York racing season opens at Jamaica April 1 with the $20,000-added Paumonok Handicap, a traditional "first day" stakes, and winds up at the same track Nov. 15 with the $25,000-added Display Handicap. In between are race meetings at Belmont Park and Saratoga Springs.

Parker Sets Basketball Conference Scoring Mark

Millersville Star Scores 820 Points

JOHNSTOWN, Jan. 16 (AP)—Millersville's all-conference center, John Parker of Norristown, set a new all-time scoring mark in the seven-year-old Pennsylvania State Teachers Colleges Basketball Conference by scoring 23 points Saturday in Millersville 87-81 win over Shippensburg. Parker boasted his all-time scoring in conference games to 820 points, six better than the record set by Roger Coviera of Kutztown.

Parker has tallied his total in 44 conference games since 1954. He holds the high single season record with 289 points recorded last year. Coviera had held the record with 814 points in 37 games played from 1953 to 1956 inclusive.

Face Setters

West Chester and Clarion share the current lead in the conference race. West Chester downed Kutztown Saturday, while in other weekend conference action Slippery Rock clipped winless Edinboro, 78-72, and Mansfield again defeated Lock Haven, this time by score of 56 to 43.

Five conference games are slated this week as follows:

Indiana at Clarion; Bloomsburg at Kutztown; and East Stroudsburg at Millersville, Bloomsburg at Mansfield and Lock Haven at Clarion.

Standings follow:

ESSTC	1	2	156
Chester	1	2	153
California	1	2	153
Lock Haven	0	4	104

(Mansfield won two Slippery Rock non-conference and last one; and Edinboro lost two. Not listed as they are not eligible for championship because they do not play required minimum of eight conference games.)

Kansas Upset 'Dreamed Up'

AMES, Iowa, Jan. 17 (AP)—The strategy by which Iowa State hobbled Wilt Chamberlain and defeated top-ranked Kansas in Tuesday's basketball thriller was dreamed up literally.

Coach Bill Strannigan disclosed that Iowa State first rehearsed its new maneuvers Sunday after Bob Lamon, assistant coach, explained a defense which came to him in a dream Saturday night.

The strategy held Chamberlain to 17 points-field goals and seven free throws—and gave Iowa State a 39-37 victory.

"Give Lamon credit for the defense," said Strannigan.

Along with defense, however, Strannigan and other Iowa State officials credit their team's "hustle" as another big factor in outcome.

Braves, Cubs, Cards File Pacts Away

By The Associated Press

THE MILWAUKEE Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs each filed contracts autographed by star players while the New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers whistled in the dark.

The Braves signed Joe Adcock to a two-year contract, calling for an estimated $20,000 to $25,000 a season.

The Cardinals, meanwhile, counted southpaw Wilmer (Vinegar) Bendt Milenz and the Cubs checked in right-hander Bob Rush.

The Braves, who also signed rookie shortstop Joe Morgan, now have 11 players under contract.

The Yankees have yet to collar Mickey Mantle, the American League's most valuable player in 1956 and the Tigers are minus the contract of Al Kaline, 1955 batting leader. Mantle, however, seems to be the major problem.

Other Inking

In other signings, the Tigers had some solace from the accepted contract of infielder Jim Finigan, whom they acquired from the Kansas City Athletics in one of the biggest player deals of the winter. He will likely be played at third base for Detroit.

Jim Rivera became the sixth satisfied member of the Chicago White Sox.

Elliott Named Coach At California

BERKELEY, Calif., Jan. 16 (AP)—California yesterday named the youngest football coach in its history, 30-year-old Pete Elliott, who directed Nebraska's squad last year.

Athletic Director Greg Engelhard said Elliott was signed to a three year contract but would not disclose his salary.

Elliott will have authority to pick his own assistants. Elliott leaves a $14,500 a year post with the Cornhuskers to take the new job.

He replaces Lynn O. (Pappy) Waldorf who resigned his $17,500 a year job last fall when the Golden Bears finished eighth in the Pacific Coast Conference.

Moves Up

Bill Jennings, 38, yesterday moved up from backfield coach to head football coach at the University of Nebraska. He succeeds Pete Elliott, who moves to the University of California after one year in the Nebraska job. Elliott's first head coaching post.

NBA Players Get 'Family Plan'

BOSTON, Jan. 17 (AP)—Maurice Podoloff, president of the National Basketball Assn., presented the league's all star players a "family plan" for settling their differences with the owners today in an apparent effort to forestall their unionization.

Podoloff promised the players, in an open meeting with them, he would schedule "as the first order of business at the annual meeting April 15 of the board of directors, a meeting with player representatives."

1st Nat Signings

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—The Washington Senators, baseball variety, announced today their first player signings for 1957. They came to terms with pitcher Pedro Ramos, 12-10 last season, and Bob Wisler, 3-12, along with outfielder Dick Tellebach. Salaries were not disclosed.

A's Sign Outfielder

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 16 (AP)—Outfielder Jim Pisoni, obtained by the Kansas City Athletics late last season from Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League, signed his 1957 contract with the American League club today.

Drive Started To Aid Louis

CHICAGO, Jan. 17 (AP)—A three-week fund drive to help former heavyweight champion Joe Louis settle his vast income tax debt was announced yesterday.

Although Louis is some 1 1/4 million dollars in arrears in income taxes, a fund board of directors—with former heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey as honorary chairman—expressed hope that some "reasonable" settlement could be made with the government.

The fund has been chartered as a non-profit organization by two Norfolk, Neb., businessmen, who never saw Louis fight in person but conceived the fund last October because they "always were for the underdog."

Chevrolet shows you some important differences in low-priced cars just by the look on its face!

There's a look of substance and character and quality about that new Chevrolet front end that reveals a lot. Feel the strength and solidity of the grille and you learn even more.

Wouldn't you say that most of the '57 cars look good from 50 feet away, but what about from 50 inches away? What does a close-up of the grille tell you, for example? Is it solidly made like the new Chevrolet grille? Or, in comparison does it look less rich in design—feel less strong and solid? Compare the quality and construction of the bumpers and headlights, the fit of the chrome trim.

The more closely you look all around the car, the more clearly you'll see that Chevrolet has the edge in the way it's put together. You'll find, for instance, that Chevrolet is the only car in its field with a lacquer finish... that only Chevrolet Bel Air models give you foam rubber cushions in front and rear seats as standard equipment. These are just a few of the advantages of Body by Fisher. And Chevrolet, you know, is the only low-priced car that has a Fisher Body.

Letters For Hitler

BERLIN, Jan. 16 (AP) — Some people still seem to believe Hitler is alive. The West German post office says it gets an average of one letter a month addressed to Hitler. Some come from England, South America and India. Hitler is legally dead.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right, until you find the message. Two Missing Brothers Return Home

WILEY FORD, W. Va., Jan. 16 (AP)—Two young brothers who had been hunted for two days walked into a neighbor's house today hungry and scared.

There was no immediate explanation of why they left home.

Volunteers
As many as 150 policemen, firemen and volunteers had searched this section of the Potomac River Valley yesterday and today looking for the boys. They were last seen about 8 p. m. Sunday when they left the home of Albert Murray, a half mile from their home, where they had eaten dinner.

A physician said the boys, Glen Rohrbach, 10, and his brother, Robert Lee, 8, were in good condition. He said they told him they had spent the last two nights in a dog house near their home.

The boys were taken to a hospital across the Potomac River in Cumberland, Md., for examination. The doctor planned to keep them overnight for observation.

Claude Rohrbach, their father, said the boys had wandered away from home before.

Water Gap

Water Gap
WATER GAP people have learned only recently of the death of Peter Davey of Long Island. Mr. Davey was the husband of the former Ethel Strunk, whose father kept the grocery store in Water Gap quite some years ago and later was tax collector. Mr. Davey had been invalided this summer while he and Ethel were in Monroe County on a vacation, and he had to spend many weeks in General Hospital. Later improvement in his health permitted them to play to buy a lot and build in Water Gap. Word of his death in late November was a shock to their friends here.

Mrs. William Glebe and Mrs. Bennett Strait were supper guests of Mrs. H. W. Broadhead, Stroudsburg, Wednesday and spent the evening there.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Post and son Claude of Quakertown, Pa., spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker and were supper guests.

Warrant Officer and Mrs. Donald Hauser were off from Virginia last week to visit Donald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hauser. Donald is now on the ammunition boat, Shasta, and the young folks have purchased a home in Norfolk, Va.

Miss Elsa Drake was soloist with the Junior Choir, in the Presbyterian Church, Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gehm called on friends here, Monday morning. They returned to their Marshall's Creek home last Thursday, having left for Germany in September. The trip over, accompanied by Mr. Gehm's mother, Mrs. G. Krautwurst, was made on the Italian.

Their return trip, which was prolonged 30 hours by a severe storm, was on the Berlin which carried 450 Hungarian refugees to Canada. The Gehms spent much time in Kaiserlautern; but visited other sections, such as Bavaria, and traveled in the Alps. Their plan to go into Austria was changed by the Hungarian uprising. They then started for the coast to take a boat home; but were assured that the section of Germany in which they visited would feel no trouble. They found the climate delightful and mild; but the poverty seen on all sides was depressing and led them to "give away" even much of their clothing. People who want to help themselves and get on their feet again have no way in which to do so. Yet signs of recovery are also seen on all sides. The Gehms are having an interesting time catching up on local news and election news, on national and state election news.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Baker, Mrs. Walter Bryfogle, Mrs. Orien Lambert and Miss Nellie Burd drove out to the Kellersville Church, Sunday night to witness the lovely pageant "The Cross" put on by the young folks.

George Hauser, who celebrated his birthday, Tuesday, has been receiving many cards and greetings from friends.

Newspapers Too Large
CALCUTTA, Jan. 16 (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru was asked by Indian reporters at a reception what he thought of the U. S. newspapers he saw on his recent American tour.

"Well," he replied, "each consists of more than 100 pages and there are so many sections. The result is I can't find the news of the day."

'Feelings' Explained To Kiwanis Club

A TALK on "Feelings" was presented by Dr. Irving W. Foltz, associate professor of education, at yesterday's meeting of the Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club.

In his introduction, the speaker declared, "As a man feeleth in his heart so is he," paraphrasing a scriptural quotation by substituting the word "feeleth" for "thinketh".

How we attack our everyday problems, Dr. Foltz said, is determined by how adequate we feel about ourselves, how we feel about others and how we tend to think of ourselves and others in terms of material things.

Pointing out the seriousness of the mental adjustment problem, he quoted statistics to show that one out of every 10 persons will some day be a patient in a mental hospital.

Start

All feelings get their start before the age of six, the speaker said, adding that later troubles many times have their origin in those formative years. He also traced other periods of adjustment in a person's life, including the adolescent age, finding and holding a job, courtship and marriage.

Throughout all these periods, Dr. Foltz said in summation, mental illness and other maladjustments are bred and cultured by our feelings, mentioning specifically the attitude of inadequacy, insecurity, inferiority, non-recognition by others and not being wanted.

Jerome Elwell was program chairman. President Elwood Hintze called on Harry Sutton for a report on inter-club relations and on Jack Lantz, who reports on finances.
